

Comunicato Stampa / Press Release N. 2 - 2025

OVER 220 DRIVERS ENTERED THE 36TH ANDREA MARGUTTI TROPHY

The deadline to enter the event is on March 14th. A lot of big names are already among the entered drivers in the event organized by Parma Motorsport at the South Garda Karting Circuit in Lonato on March 20-23.

The 36th Andrea Margutti Trophy presents itself with over 220 entries in the MINI Gr.3, MINI Under 10, KZ2, OK-Junior, OK-N and OK-NJ categories. Many international-level teams are present with a fine group of drivers ready to line up in the traditional event organized by Parma Motorsport at the South Garda Karting circuit in Lonato from March 20th to 23rd. Registrations will be accepted until March 14th.

Several top drivers present.

Several top drivers will be present, from the youngest in the MINI categories to the highest performing direct drive categories of OKJ, ON-NJ and OK-N, up to the highest performing shifter category of KZ2.

Among the most interesting names, at the moment in the MINI U10 the presence of the American Josh Bergman with the Kidix Driver Performance team stands out, while in the MINI Gr.3 from 10 to 12 years old there are several young top drivers ready to leave their mark, led by Niccolò Perico with Team Driver, the Englishman Mason Robertson with BabyRace, the Frenchman Jean Poujol with Tony Kart Racing Team, Antonio Ianni with Ward Racing, David Moscardi with Novalux, the Estonian Marc Loomets with MP Academy Gamoto.

The OKJ presents itself with several young drivers ready to familiarize with the international category, a direct emanation of the OK-NJ, where instead the transition from MINI prevails. In the OK-N Junior the turnout continues to be very interesting, and among the most competitive young drivers at the start of this season, the Ukrainian Vsevolod Osadchy-Suslovskiy with the Monster K Factory team, together with his compatriot Oleksandr Legenkyi with Team Driver, Cristian Blandino with the Greek team GSR Team, the American Nicola Stanley together with the Polish Leonardo Gorski with MP Academy Gamoto, and the drivers of Modena Kart with Gioele Girardello, the Lithuanian Nojus Stasionis and the Swiss Albert Tamm have already made their mark.

The presence of competitors in the higher category of OK-N is also excellent. Among the already entered ones are experienced drivers such as Riccardo Ferrari with M2 Racing, Antonio Apicella with GSR Team, Federico Rossi and Cristian Comanducci with PRK, Manuel Scognamiglio with Tellone Motorsport. Several girls will also be competing in this category, such as the Turkish Ayse Cebi with M2 Racing, Isabella Rapezzi with Ward Racing, Veronica Ciocca with Novalux, Luisa Maria Della Pietra with Team Driver.

The participation in KZ2 is rich in top drivers, starting with Cristian Bertuca on BirelART, William Lanzeni on EKS, Davide Forè with IPK Factory Team, Alessio Piccini with Modena Kart, Giacomo Pollini with King Racing Team, David Trefilov with Formula K SRP, Andrea Dalè on CRG and Giuseppe Palomba with Maranello Kart.

The program:

Thursday, March 20th: Sporting scrutineering and Free practice.

Friday, March 21st: Official free practice, Qualifying practice and heats.

Saturday, March 22nd: Qualifying heats.

Sunday, March 23rd, in Live Streaming: Second chance races, Prelims, Finals, Prize ceremony.

Info www.trofeomargutti.com.

Press Office
Parma Motorsport Srls

12.03.2025