THE CHAMPIONS OF THE 36TH ANDREA MARGUTTI TROPHY

The 36th edition of the Andrea Margutti Trophy at South Garda Karting of Lonato was won by Algre (MINI U10), Scognamiglio OKN, Berezkin OKJ, Perico (MINI Gr.3), Osadchyi-Suslovskiyi (OKNJ) and Bertuca (KZ2).

Lonato del Garda (ITA).

A great event characterized the Andrea Margutti Trophy once again at South Garda Karting. The race is now in its 36th edition with the presence of major national and international teams, and 250 entries from 36 nations. It was a beautiful sporting and technical confrontation on the 1,200 meters of the Lonato track in memory of the young Andrea Margutti, a promising karting talent who passed away in 1989 at just 14 years old, whom the Parma Motorsport organization wants to remember every year since 1990.

The event, included in the FIA Karting international calendar, took place over a rather difficult weekend due to a light rain that challenged the drivers, but in the end, after the hard-fought qualifying phases and the Prefinals, Algre (MINI U10), Scognamiglio (OKN), Berezkin (OKJ), Perico (MINI Gr.3), Osadchyi-Suslovskiyi (OKNJ) and Bertuca (KZ2) won in the Finals.

MINI U10 – Algre's triumph.

In the duel at the start of the weekend between the American Josh Bergman (Kidix/KR-lame-MG), author of pole position and the best position after the heats, and the Estonian Jan Ruudi Algre (Formula K SRP/IPK TM Kart), it was the Estonian driver who prevailed both in the Prefinal, with victory ahead of Bergman, and then in the Final with first place and a good advantage over Andreas Papageorgiou (Monster K Factory/Monster-TM Kart), with Josh Bergman finishing third. Just off the podium, fourth was the Thai Phawin Warakitsupachok (BabyRace/Parolin-lame) and fifth the Ukrainian Platon Kovtunenکو (Bosch Racing/Energy-lame).

MINI U10 Final result

1st Jan Ruudi Algre (EST) (Formula K SRP/IPK TM Kart-MG)

2nd Andreas Papageorgiou (CYP) (Monster K Factory/Monster-TM Kart) +5.497

3rd Josh Bergman (USA) (Kidix/KR-lame) +8.101

OKN – Great victory for Scognamiglio.

Manuel Scognamiglio (Tellone Motorsport/Tony Kart-lame-MG) won the OK-N Final at the end of a very tight race until the end and put his name in the Hall of Fame of the Andrea Margutti Trophy. On the finish line, Scognamiglio proceeded Daniele Vezzelli (CM Motorsport/CRG-TM Kart) who had won the Prefinal, remaining always quite close to the leader until the chequered flag. The third place went to Nicolas Marchesi (Team Driver/KR-lame) after having obtained the best position in the heats. Niccolò Coppotelli (KGT Motorsport/Tony Kart-Vortex) was fourth and the Finnish Mike Parhiala (Kohtala Sports/OTK-Vortex) fifth.

OKN Final result

1st Manuel Scognamiglio (ITA) (Tellone Motorsport/Tony Kart-lame-MG)

2nd Daniele Vezzelli (ITA) (CM Motorsport/CRG-TM Kart) +1.167

3rd Nicolas Marchesi (ITA) (Team Driver/KR-lame) +8.776

OKJ – Berezkin dominates.

In OKJ, Ilia Berezkin (Kali Kart Racing/Kali-Kart-TM Kart-Vega) literally dominated, bringing back a glorious name like that of the Kali-Kart chassis to the Andrea Margutti Trophy Hall of Fame. Berezkin dominated the scene, finishing with over 8 seconds of advantage over Antonio Cocchianella (Borsch Racing/Tony Kart-lame), but the Italian driver was later on penalized. The Czech Matyas Vitver (MP Academy Gamoto/Henza Kart-TM Kart) gained the second position, recovering 14 places. The Norwegian Noah Antonsen (AF Competition/Parolin-TM Kart) was third, the Danish Elliot Spangtoft (AF Competition/Parolin-TM Kart) was fourth due to a penalty on the front spoiler and the Finnish Oskari Walle (Parolin Finland/Parolin-TM Kart) fifth also due to a penalty on the spoiler.

OKJ Final result
