

TROFEO ANDREA MARGUTTI

27-29 MARZO 2015

SOUTH GARDA KARTING
LONATO-ITALY

Press Release n. 6

GREAT BATTLES EXPECTED IN ALL THE CATEGORIES OF THE 26TH ANDREA MARGUTTI TROPHY. 160 DRIVERS ON TRACK IN LONATO

25 countries will be represented at the Andrea Margutti Trophy that is underway at the South Garda Karting of Lonato. Under the spotlight since the beginning Davide Forè in KZ2, Max Fewtrell in KF, Noah Watt in KFJ, Nicolò Cuman in 60 Mini. Qualifying practice and heats scheduled for Saturday 28 March, Prefinals and Finals for Sunday 29 March.

The 26th edition of the Andrea Margutti Trophy, race scheduled for the weekend of the 29th of March and organized by Parma Karting at the South Garda Karting of Lonato, started in the best possible way with a lot of drivers partaking in the 4 categories of the event. A solid 160 drivers have been verified in KZ2, KF, KF Junior and 60 Mini, out of the entered 165 coming from 25 countries. Competitiveness level is high in all categories as several protagonists are ready to battle the victory out. On the side of the event, the “friend sun” also appeared in Lonato, as used to announce the historic patron of the event, Umberto Pellegrini.

Press Release n. 6

Among the big names of the 53 drivers present in KZ2, the five times world champion Davide Forè, on CRG-Tm, put his name forward as a strong contender to the final win of this 26th edition of the trophy as he set the best time completing the quickest loop in 41"657. The advantage of Forè is anyway limited to only a few thousands of a second. Luca Tilloca (Intrepid-Tm) is very close to him with a quickest performance of 41"676, as the young and always quicker Giacomo Pollini (CKR-Tm) set a best lap of 41"698. The other young promise Tommaso Mosca (Maranello-Tm) followed in 41"716, the German Maxim Martynyuk (CRG-Modena) in 41"717 and Massimo Dante (Maranello-Tm) in 41"750. All is set for the great spectacle ahead.

KF has 27 drivers on track. The strongest so far has been the Briton Max Fewtrell (FA Alonso-Vortex) of team Ricky Flynn, who set the quickest time in three out of the four heats. His best time was a 42"751. In his trail, the Dutch driver Richard Verschoor (Exprit-Vortex) and Leonardo Lorandi (Tony Kart-Vortex). The performance of 2013 world champion Tom Joyner (Zanardi-Tm) and that of the Russian Alexander Vartanyan (Tony Kart-Vortex) will also be quite awaited though.

In KF Junior (43 drivers), another driver of Ricky Flynn, the Dane Noah Watt (FA Alonso-Vortex), has been under the spotlight setting the best time of 43"754. Among the pace setters, Artem Petrov (DR-Tm), Ivan Grigoriev (Kosmic-Vortex) and Ivan Shvetson (Tony Kart-Vortex).

In 60 Mini, Nicolò Cuman (Tony Kart-Tm) of Baby Race has been the quickest of the 37 drivers on track in 49"874. A lot of youngsters were anyway close to Cuman, starting from Leonardo Marseglia (CRG-Tm), to the Italian champion Giuseppe Fusco (Tony Kart-Tm).

The Andrea Margutti Trophy will get to its heart on Saturday 28 March with qualifying practice from 10.00hrs (local time). Heats will then follow at 13.20hrs. The programme will reach its conclusion on Sunday 29 March with second chance races in the morning (at 10.30hrs) for KFJ, 60 Mini and KZ2. Prefinals and Finals will follow. Drivers presentation will take place at 12.30hrs while prize ceremonies will be at 17.30.

The race will enjoy live streaming service on Sunday 29 March at the website www.trofeomargutti.com. Live timing will also be available at the same website.

Parma, 25 March 2015
Parma Karting Press Office

In the pictures: 1) Davide Forè, KZ2; 2) Max Fewtrell, KF; 3) Noah Watt, KFJ; 4) Nicolò Cuman, 60 Mini (FM Press).

