Some surprises came in the morning's qualifying practice. A new name has come to the fore in KZ2: that of Giacomo Pollini (CKR-Tm), who had been the quickest in practice together with the brilliant youngster Tommaso Mosca (Maranello-Tm), who was second absolute. A very good performance was also put in by Luca Tilloca (Intrepid-Modena), third ahead of Lorenzo Lapina

In KF, some of the announced protagonists displayed good shape in qualifying, like the Russian Alexander Vartanyan (Tony Kart-Vortex) who took P1, the Dutch Richard Verschoor (Exprit-Vortex) who was 73 thousands shy of the pace setter, the British Max Fewtrell (Fa Alonso-Vortex) at 78 thousands and Leonardo Lorandi (Tony Kart-Vortex) at two tenths. Heats confirmed Leonardo Marseglia as one of the main contenders to the victory as he took the win in two heats, while the third went to Leonardo Papalia (Tony Kart-Tm) after the 3 seconds penalty handed to Nicolò Cuman, who also set the quickest time in free practice.
